Reminders for assessors:

- Locally- or culturally-relevant terms may be substituted in English or in the language of the assessment.
- Any term used in English or other languages may be defined or rephrased if the participant does not understand the word.
- Partial credit should only be awarded where indicated. "Prompt" and "Incorrect" boxes do not receive credit.
- The assessment should be given to one participant at a time.
- Do not indicate to the participant whether responses are correct or incorrect during the administration of the assessment. You can say "thank you" or "ok" after each response to indicate you are moving on to the next question.
- You should provide reassurance or stop the assessment if the participant becomes upset or frustrated.
- You should prompt the participant for another answer or to be more specific if (1) the answer was almost correct but too vague, (2) the participant misunderstood the question, or (3) the participant indicates the question is not applicable to her or him.

Before beginning the assessment:

- Make a statement such as the following:

"We are conducting this assessment to find out how much you know about the U.S. after attending cultural orientation. Your responses will not have any impact on the services provided to you and your name will not be used in any reports about the results. Please let me know if you need to stop or take a break."

"Estamos llevando a cabo esta evaluación para averiguar cuánto sabe usted acerca de los EE.UU. después de haber asistido a la orientación cultural. Sus respuestas no tendrán ningún impacto en los servicios que le prestamos a usted y su nombre no se utilizará en los informes de resultados. Por favor, hágamelos saber si usted necesita parar o hacer una pausa."

- This statement can be made in any language and using any wording that feels comfortable, as long as the following ideas are conveyed:
  - Results will not affect services provided to individuals or case members.
  - Data will not be reported publicly by name.
  - Participants may stop or take a break at any time.

1	What is one reason why it is important to learn English?
	¿Cuál es una de las razones por las que es importante aprender inglés?
Response:		Correct    Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 1 point for correct answer

Reason should reflect survival or comfort in the U.S., e.g., employment, acculturation, talking to Americans, English is the language spoken here. A response like “because the case worker said to” should not be considered a correct answer. If the participant states that s/he already speaks English, prompt “Why is it important for anyone in the U.S. to learn English?” ¿Por qué es importante aprender inglés para cualquier persona en EE.UU.?

2	What is your address and phone number?
	¿Cuál es su dirección y número de teléfono?
Address (Must include house #, street name, apt # [if applicable], and city):		Displayed or said correctly    Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 0.5 point for correct answer
Phone number (Must have area code if routinely stated by locals):		Displayed or said correctly    Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/> <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 0.5 point for correct answer
EXEMPTION: Participant has no phone		Exempt <input type="checkbox"/>

Information must be said, written, or displayed in English. You may prompt the participant if s/he does not mention a critical element (e.g., “What is the city?” ¿Qué ciudad es?), and all critical elements must be stated accurately for full credit. If a participant cannot remember address and/or phone number or cannot say it in English, prompt “Do you have it written down on something you carry with you?” “¿Lo lleva usted escrito en algo que lleve puesto?” Displaying address and phone number on something carried at all times (including cell phone or pocket card) should be considered a correct answer. If participant does not have a personal phone number, you may mark “Exempt.”

3	Can you tell me two services provided by [name of agency] that help refugees resettle or adjust to life in the U.S.?  ¿Me puede decir dos servicios prestados por [nombre del organismo] que ayuden a los refugiados a reasentarse o a adaptarse a la vida en los EE.UU.?

Response 2:	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Prompt <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
If needed, response 3:	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 0.5 point for each correct answer (maximum 1 point)

If client names something related to but not the responsibility of the resettlement agency or does not specify how the service provided by another organization is connected to the agency (e.g., says “public assistance” instead of “signs me up for public assistance”), prompt “Can you think of anything else?” “¿Puede pensar en algo más?” If an individual’s responses are all too general (e.g., “they will help me,” “health”), you may prompt “Can you think of specific things they can do to help you adjust to life in the U.S.?” “¿Puede pensar en algo específico que le haya ayudado a usted a adaptarse mejor a la vida en los EE.UU.?” Local resettlement agencies should provide assessors with a list of correct responses (e.g., what direct services and referrals are offered) and what responses are close but not directly connected or too vague and thus suitable for prompting.

4	For each health concern that I say, indicate whether you should care for it yourself, make an appointment with your doctor's office, or go to a hospital emergency room.

If needed, response 2:	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 1 point for fully correct initial response, or give 0.5 point for each correct answer (maximum 1 point)

A fully correct initial response would include a question or a statement in English signifying the need for an interpreter and an indication of which language is needed (1 point). If the participant does not say the name of her or his language, prompt "How would you tell them what language you speak?" "¿Cómo les diría en qué idioma habla?" (response must be in English). English responses need not be grammatically correct but must be comprehensible. Demonstrating the use of a 'language request' card or stating that the participant would call someone they know who speaks English should be awarded full credit (1 point). If the participant states that s/he already speaks English, prompt "What if you needed to ask for an interpreter for another person?" ¿Y si necesitase pedir un intérprete para otra persona?

6	When your [name of initial assistance program] ends, how will you/your family get money? ¿Cuándo su [nombre del programa de asistencia inicial] termine, cómo usted / su familia van a obtener dinero?

If needed, response 2	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 1 point for correct initial response or response to prompt (maximum 1 point)

If the participant says something vague like “the government” or “the community,” prompt “Can you be more specific?” “¿Puede ser más específico?” (the participant must then name or describe a government/community program or office). If the participant states that another family member will support her or him, prompt “How will s/he get money to support the family?” “¿Cómo va a conseguir dinero para mantener a la familia?” Depending on the participant’s situation, correct responses may include employment of self or other household members as well as federal or state income supports.

7	What are two things a refugee can do to become employed? ¿Cuáles son dos cosas que un refugiado puede hacer para obtener un empleo?
Response 1:	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Prompt <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
Response 2:	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Prompt <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
If needed, response 3:	Correct <input type="checkbox"/>	Incorrect <input type="checkbox"/>
Give 0.5 point for each correct answer (maximum 1 point)

Response should reflect tangible steps toward employment, including steps on a job search or application, learning English, job training, or getting necessary documentation. If refugee’s response is too general (e.g., “go to the agency”) or related to attributes that make one employable (e.g., “be hardworking and honest”), prompt “Can you think of anything else?” “¿Puede pensar en algo más?” If the refugee indicates they cannot work due to age or disability or if they are already employed, prompt “What can any refugee do to become employed?” “¿Qué puede hacer cualquier refugiado para conseguir empleo?”

	If needed, response 2:	Correct	Incorrect
		<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Give 1 point for correct initial response or response to prompt (maximum 1 point)

Assessor may substitute another critical service such as drug store, food pantry, or laundromat (if not in participant's own apartment complex). Correct answers may be a description of driving or walking directions or stating which bus/train to take and where to get off. The participant need not name specific streets but should provide some description of which direction and how far to go (if walking or driving) or how far to go on public transportation. The answer should provide sufficient evidence that the participant knows where the grocery store or other critical service is; the question is not testing the participant's ability to provide directions.
